Dear Parent(s)/Guardian(s),

On Wednesday 24th of April all 5th year students are invited to attend the School Summit Event taking place in the National Sports Arena, Blanchardstown. The School Summit is an Education and Careers event. The event covers a wide and varied spectrum of topics on further education and careers sectors. Hundreds of exhibitors and influential speakers will be present on the day. If you would like to know more please click on the following link; <https://schoolsummit.ie/leinster-events/>

Students will travel to the National Sports Arena on a private bus with the schools Guidance Counsellors. Students attend school as normal. Students will leave the school at 9:30am and return to the school by 2pm. Students must wear their full school uniform and are advised to bring a packed lunch and a school bag for any information gathered on the day. Normal school rules apply. The cost of the ticket (€15) has been waived; the cost of the bus to the event is €10, leaving the total cost of the event €10. Payment needs to be made through the easy payments on the school website by Friday 19th April at 1pm.

If you have any questions about the upcoming event feel free to contact us by email (beustace@boynecs.ie / aharrington@boynecs.ie / tconnaughton@boynecs.ie) or phone call through the main office.

Yours sincerely,

The Guidance Counselling Department
